November: The Month of the Holy Souls.

St. John Vianney, the Curé of Ars, "If we only knew what power these souls have over the heart of God, and what graces we can receive through their intercession, they would not be as abandoned by us. The prayer for their relief from Purgatory is, after the prayer for the conversion of sinners, the most pleasing prayer to God".

Prisoners Sunday: (6th November).

99% of people know nothing about prison, thank God. I always say to parents one of the toughest challenges any parent will ever get in their life is having to go to a prison to visit a son or a daughter. If you have never been to a prison, if you have never been in a court, if you have never any connection, the worse it is. If I go to a middle-class school or a working-class school or in certain areas in Dublin sometimes the teacher will say to me going in 'by the way there's a girl or a boy in there whose father is in prison, just that you know' and of course naturally I will never mention anything about such things in talking to kids in a classroom and they would most definitely not say anything. But when I got to certain areas of this city, they're great areas and there's some wonderful people there, but when I go into the secondary school in some of those areas I'm not inside the door in the classroom when there's five or six young lads up around me saying 'Do you know me dad? Do you know me ...? (laughter) and while that's funny, it's also very sad because what it tells you is that in my culture going up to Mountjoy is normal. Anyone who says to me well they're better off in prison than they are outside, I say well that's a sadder reflection of what's outside than what's inside because I can assure you that inside is horrible.
